Japa/ times
location of land indicat. of owner.

Although I cannot document that land held by Antonio (G+3) belonged or has inherited from his father Joaquin (G+4) I assume it was. One of the reasons is the location of lot 36-38 and lot 40 held by Vicente. Secondly lot 65 is closely located to those held by J. and A. in the G+3 generation. So these lands were held at least by people in the G+4 generation. ^{1938 ✓}
Lots 38 and 65 were transferred to the Ng. in 1939 (NPR) although lot 65 was utilized by its former owner during Japanese times.
