F--D./ knowledge of land

Land passed from Pablo to oldest daughter Calistra. Today under Calistra's husband's (deceased) name. But people told me land belonged to Calistra's family because of the location next to lots owned by the Topasna.

x This lot most likely Felipe got it from ^{Calistra} Pablo Topasna - ^{dd. 1586} his in-law Calistra Topasna - ^{is F- Pablo Topasna -} (see Gen. under Topasna) Eusebio Topasna (Jok) had a land there. Area used is Eusebio's house before - when Santiago stays now belonged to Refullo's F. before - (Jok Topasna) Felipe & Calistra stayed in house made out of FIL wood, most likely from Calistra's parents.

Approximately in 1916 Hermenegildo Q. Quinata inherited the land from her mother Luisa. Hermenegildo distributed the land among his three daughters: Magdalena, Ana and Maria.

In 1970 The three daughters gave it to Jose Q. Cheguina and Guadalupe T. Cheguina (related to the three of them); they have a house there but the land still under Hermenegildo's name. No legal action taken
