

PREGNANCIES IN UMATAC

Oliva

7-21-76

"I am afraid for Sylvia because you know what is happening to the girls in Umatac. As soon as they go out you know what happens to them. I think they are too innocent. It is very difficult to control when you go out and like the guy. They do not know how to protect themselves."

The mother collects jewelry in case she has a daughter she can give the jewelry to her (bracelet, earrings of Spanish gold). Piling's mother owned so much but during Japanese times it was stolen. She was told that the Japanese did it. But later on she saw people in Umatac wearing her jewelry. Piling's mother was going to give it to her daughters-in-law because she had no daughters but nothing was left.

FANAGUE

Tomasa

7-21-76

"Denis was Nana's boy because he grew up with nana but then Tony did not take good care of him; Tony said nana fanague him one time and I said it might be because of his lack of care for Denis. When he was staying with them Tony let him hike from Anderson to the house in harmon."
